ELEMENTS

this section defines the visual elements used consistently—shapes, lines, and so on —to maintain High Horse’s creative identity.

Shapes

We primarily use solid rectangles/Squares and outlined rectangles/Squares. Circles are used occasionally, only as embellishments without functional intent.

Corner Radius – 5
Border – 1px – 4px

Lines

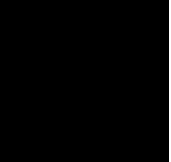

We use solid and dashed lines, often combined and varied in size, to create forms and add visual interest.

Line Height – 1px – 4px
Line Width – According to visual representation

Other Elements

Textures, forms, gradients, and visuals are used solely to enhance representation across web, print, and other platforms—without compromising core brand elements or the High Horse creative identity.

FINAL NOTE

All elements included in this deck—such as logos, typography, colors, visuals, and text—are an integral part of the High Horse brand identity. These assets are proprietary and must not be altered, replicated, or used in any form without formal approval from the brand's head department. Any unauthorized use or modification is strictly prohibited. Please exercise caution and ensure proper clearance before applying any specific brand element. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
